Professional Reference for

Dionne Moskow
Polkadot PR

To Whom It May Concern:

It has been my great pleasure to work with Dionne Moskow of Polkadot PR in the last month. Dionne was instrumental in getting Sydney-based press for my organisation, Freelance Success. With a minimum of fuss and a terrific attitude, Dionne was able to secure an interview with a journalist that resulted in an article published in the Sydney Morning Herald. This resulted in both public interest and direct sales for my business.

I will definitely be hiring Dionne again in the future for additional PR work. We are very grateful for her help, and I am happy to recommend Dionne and Polkadot PR for any public relations needs. Dionne is friendly, professional, knowledgeable and easy to work with. If you would like any more information about our relationship with Polkadot PR, please get in touch.

Best regards,

Monica Davidson
